

Saving HOMES. Restoring PRIDE.

Immediate Release

June 25, 2013

Media Contact: Kimberly Sullivan
513-482-5117
sullivank@pwchomerepairs.org

People Working Cooperatively's Golf Outing July 29 helps Modifications Program

Cincinnati: HealthCare Friends and People Working Cooperatively will hold their annual golf outing Monday, July 29 at Heritage Golf and Country Club in Mason. The event benefits PWC's Modifications for Mobility Program which helps low income, elderly and disabled homeowners with the accessibility ramps and the modifications they need to safely live in their own homes. Last year the event raised $22,500.

Organizing the event are Bill Hitch of Ft. Thomas and Marsha Bell of South Lebanon.

Cost to play in the event is $250. Sponsorships are still available from $200 and up. For details contact: Bill Hitch, 513-482-5101; e-mail: hitchb@pwchomerepairs.org or Marsha Bell, 513-470-4854; e-mail: mbell@healthcarefriends.net.

About HealthCare Friends

HealthCare Friends celebrates 10 years as an organization devoted to facilitating networking opportunities for the health care and related professionals in the Greater Cincinnati, and Northern Kentucky area. Visit www.healthcarefriends.net for more information.

About People Working Cooperatively

Incorporated in 1975, People Working Cooperatively (PWC) is a nonprofit organization serving low-income, elderly, and disabled homeowners in 24 counties of Southwestern Ohio, Northern Kentucky and Indiana. PWC strengthens communities by providing professional, critical home repair, weatherization, modification, and maintenance services to help residents stay safely in their homes. Visit www.pwchomerepairs.org for more information