PWC- Working for your community

WHO IS PWC? People Working Cooperatively (PWC) is a truly unique non-profit agency that began in 1975 as a way to help very low-income elderly, disabled, and other residents of greater Cincinnati and northern Kentucky maintain their homes with critical home repairs, home modifications, and energy conservation services. PWC is a member of the Greater Cincinnati Better Business Bureau and has the authorization to display the BBB's Wise Giving Seal of Approval for charitable accountability.

We are an involved, important part of your community, supported by many municipalities, businesses, organizations and foundations - all to improve the living conditions of the region's most vulnerable homeowners.
