People Working Cooperatively (PWC) Receives $200,000 from The Home Depot Foundation for Veteran Home Repairs and Modifications in Greater Cincinnati

An Additional $70,000 was received in Funding to Further Support Veterans

Cincinnati, OH (March 31, 2020) – People Working Cooperatively (PWC) announced today that to date in 2020 the nonprofit received more than $270,000 in grants from local organizations to be used for critical home repairs and modifications for low-income, elderly and disabled veteran homeowners. This includes a $200,000 grant from The Home Depot Foundation for repairs and modifications to local veteran homes.

“We are so grateful for the organizations and individuals who understand and support our mission, many of whom have been long-term partners to PWC,” said Chris Owens, Vice President of Development at PWC. “Every dollar is used to help keep local residents stay safe in their homes.”

Grants were awarded from the following organizations:

- The Home Depot Foundation: $200,000 for repairs and modifications to veteran households
- The Farmer Family Foundation: $30,545 for home repairs and modifications
- Home Builders Association: $12,579 for home repairs and modifications
- Scripps Howard Foundation: $10,000 for home repairs and modifications
- Deer Park Roofing: $10,000 for home repairs and modifications
- Tri Health: $10,000 for home repairs and modifications
